

Mario Novak Gallery

35-11 36th Street, Long Island City NY 11103, 4th Floor
718-777-7192 and 347-256-4390 (cell)

Program for November and December 2005

Please join us and make those events part of our community

November 17-20

International Queens Film Festival Featuring:

This year's QIFF has expanded its scope and will feature several international entries for Best Foreign Film at the 2006 Academy Awards such as: acclaimed, prize-winning films and filmmakers from around the world, such as: A Wonderful Night in Split, directed by Arsen A. Ostojic, Croatia's Oscar entry. "Ta Divna Splitska Noc" will open the Festival and there will be post screening party at the Gallery. Paheli by director Amol Palekar, India's entry for Best Foreign Film at the Academy Awards; Turkey's Oscar hopeful, Love Lorn directed by Yavuz Turgul; and From the US, the 2005 QIFF will present: September Tapes by director Christian Johnson the stirring account of an American journalist who travels to Afghanistan to learn the truth behind the search for Osama Bin Laden; and the hilarious and star-studded Life Coach a poignant mockumentary about the shallowness of Hollywood's cult of personality and much more,...

For more information and tickets please visit: www.MarioGallery.com or www.queensfilmfestival.com

Frane Mlinar: "Where Waters Meet", Oil on Canvas 80"x60"

Dec 6th: Opening of Exhibits by two of most prominent Croatian Artists in the United States

Frane Mlinar
Retrospective

Miro Sinovicic
Selected works

Reception and meet with the artists
Dec 6th, Tuesday, 6-10 pm

Miro Sinovicic: "Abbey" Print on Canvas 20" x44"